launch of the NIHR South London Health and Social Care Research Internship Programme.

Applications for the first cohort of interns will open shortly after 10 September and close in mid-October, with the programme starting in January 2026. Given this tight timeline, we would be very grateful if you could share the following expression of interest form widely with colleagues across South London (optional QR code at the bottom).

📢 New NIHR Internship Opportunity for Health & Care Professionals in South London

Are you interested in research or evidence-informed practice? A new funded internship programme, hosted by ACORN at Guy's & St Thomas' and funded by the NIHR, will provide structured training and support for health and care professionals who are new to research or looking to develop their skills.

👉 Cohort 1 starts January 2026

👉 Applications open mid-September – mid-October 2025
